Join us for a journey into the depths of our most interesting relationship encounters. Learn to explore these often challenging relationships in a whole new way. Learn to view our primary relationships through the many different perceptual states of the soul and of a compassionate shaman.

Exploring the way in which we hold relationships can give us great insight and can provide a doorway into our relationship with the entire universe. Travel the many realms past this doorway and gain profound insight and revelation about who you are and your unique signature as a human presence in this lifetime.

Class taught by Rev. Angela Mandato, LMT, NCTMB
